The Ohio Genealogical Society Writing Contest

Rules and Style Guide

2019

Authors may submit up to two entries. Submissions must be original writing and must not have been previously published in other publications; including journals, books, or online. Submission to this contest constitutes permission to publish in OGSQ or OGN. Contest judges reserve the right to disqualify entries that have been previously published (online or in print) or do not follow submission rules, including proper formatting of citations and adherence to copyright laws.

Winning articles will be featured in appropriate OGS journals. Editors of the OGS journals will determine the appropriate journal for each winning entry. Non-winning articles will be published as deemed appropriate by the editors. The contest is open to all OGS members as well as non-members. Both amateur and professional writers may submit articles.

Authors will be notified when their entries are received. Winners will be announced via e-mail letter, during the OGS Conference Saturday Annual Meeting and in OGN. OGS may choose not to award all prizes, depending on the quality of entries received.

Criteria

Entries will be judged on three criteria. Judges' comments will be returned upon request.

- Accuracy: 0-15 points
- Clarity-writing mechanics: 0-20 points
- Overall impact and interest: 0-15 points.

Total possibly points awarded by each judge is 50. Articles must score at least 25 points to be eligible for a prize.

Articles must be properly cited following the guidelines in standard works by Elizabeth Shown Mills, Chicago Manual of Style, or MLA.

Formatting

Text

- Font: Times New Roman.
 - Size: 11 points.
 - Color: Black only.
 - Margins: One inch on all sides.
