Title: Nancy Potter Turo Collection

Location: Ohio Genealogical Society, Lyle H. West Archives, 611 SR 97 W, Bellville, Ohio, 44813

Preferred Citation: Nancy Potter Turo Collection, MSS 431, box number, file number. Lyle H. West Archives, Ohio Genealogical Society, Bellville, Ohio.

Dates: 10th century-2016

Creator(s): Nancy Potter Turo (1930-2019)

Donor(s): Lake County Genealogical Society, a Chapter of OGS

Biography of Creator: Nancy Carol Potter Turo was born in Bedford, Cuyahoga County, Ohio on September 6, 1930. She and her husband Frank J. Turo married in 1951 and moved to Kirkland, Lake County, Ohio and then Willoughby Hills. She passed away in 2019 in Fremont, Ohio.

Turo completed her genealogy research in the late 1960s into the 1990s, travelling to court houses, libraries, and archives throughout the Midwest and New England. She became a genealogy lecturer and travelled giving talks to societies and communities. She was a member of numerous lineage associations including the Daughters of the American Revolution, First Families of Ohio, and the US Daughters of 1812, among others. She was also a charter member of the East Cuyahoga Genealogical Society and the Lake County Genealogical Society.

(Biographical information provided by the Lake County Genealogical Society.)

Scope and Content: The collection includes Turo's pedigree charts, family group sheets, lineage society applications, copies and originals of various court records and military records, as well as photographs. Turo's research goes back to Colonial America (primarily the New England colonies) and 10th century Europe (with a focus on French Huguenots and Scottish Presbyterians).

System of Arrangement: Files are organized in alphabetical order by surname. Female ancestors are filed under their maiden name or with their parents if unmarried; if married, they are filed under their married name with their husband. Some files have multiple surnames and families represented.

Extent: 5.04 linear feet

Access: No access restrictions.

Language: English; German.

Provenance: This collection was initially donated to the Lake County Genealogical Society by Turo's daughter, Kathy Atkinson, Fremont, Ohio in 2019. The Lake County Genealogical Society donated the collection to OGS in 2020.

Processing Information: The Lake County Genealogical Society completed the initial processing of the collection. Additional processing was completed in 2020 by OGS Staff; books were removed and placed in the OGS Library and letter sized files were transferred to archival legal sized folders.

The following items were removed from the archival collection and placed in the OGS Oversized Items collection:

- Marriage certificate of Leon E. Potter and Maud E. Harrington, 1900, Cuyahoga County, Ohio
- Solon High School diploma of Maud E. Harrington, 1899
- Diploma, Doctor of Medicine, of Seth A. Harrington, Cleveland College of Homeopathic Medicine, 1868
- Survey of Solon Village, Leon A. Potter, 1934
- Professor Certificate of Seth A. Harrington, Cleveland College of Homeopathic Medicine, 1878
